Initial Request Details

Problem Description: The child is a 10-year-old girl who needs counselling because she is feeling sad and worried often. She has become quiet, does not talk much, and finds it hard to focus on her school work.

She may be having problems at home or school and does not know how to talk about her feelings. At this age, children need help to understand and manage their emotions.

Counselling will help her feel safe, talk about her feelings, and learn how to feel better and more confident. Getting help early will support her happiness, learning, and healthy growth.

Initial Assessment Summary: Assessment pending entry by social worker.
